PHILOSOPHY

MICO represents an innovative and contemporary outlook on the original Leather carpenter's apron production, initiated in the 1960s, of the company that would eventually become the Mico Group. MICO has carried out a respectful revision of latest machines and manual work, leading the extraordinary evolution of specialized techniques worldwide. This process has materialized over time into a series of collections of great value in terms of design, research, development, and even business ethics. MICO leather carpenter's aprons are machine-made by experts, using modern techniques that have been renewed and updated thanks to the creativity of internationally renowned brands. Its application to modular structures and accessories, which allow the user to create complete works, has also given rise to new concepts in modern world.
